Date: September 29, 1995

DECISION

Computer Systems Development Corporation protests the award of a contract to Basic Technology Corporation by the Department of the Navy under request for proposals (RFP) No. N00600-94-R-2448. Computer Systems contends that its proposal offers the best value to the government but that the Navy intends to award on the basis of price even though the RFP permits consideration of technical superiority. It does not, however, provide any evidence or documentation to show that such an award would be improper.

Our Bid Protest Regulations require that a protest include a detailed statement of the legal and factual grounds of protest, 4 C.F.R. § 21.1(c)(4), and that the grounds stated be legally sufficient. 4 C.F.R. § 21.1(e). These requirements contemplate that protesters will provide, at a minimum, evidence sufficient, if uncontradicted, to support its allegations and establish the likelihood that the protester will prevail in its claim of improper agency action. Robert Wall Edge-Request for Recon., 68 Comp. Gen. 352 (1989), 89-1 CPD ¶ 335. The protest does not meet this requirement.

The protest is dismissed.
